NAME BADGE

Your name badge must be worn at all times and will allow entry to all sessions and registered social events.

For your own security and for the security of the group you will not be permitted entry into any organised program activities without your name badge. Your name badge will allow security personnel to identify you and we ask for your cooperation with this matter.

If you lose or misplace your name badge, please visit the Registration Desk immediately to organise a replacement.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We recommend obtaining travel insurance before attending the 2024 Count National Conference.

Travel insurance can cover the policyholder for insurable events that may occur before or during travel, such as trip cancellation/interruption, medical expenses for injury or illness, theft of valuables, baggage delay or damage and more.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Please follow the health advice when travelling to the Australian Capital Territory and whilst in the Australian Capital Territory, through this link.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We support the sharing of content from the event, however, please be mindful that inappropriate messaging and/or comments of a disparaging or defamatory nature will not be tolerated.

CODE OF CONDUCT

We invite you to attend the National Conference with a passion to learn and grow in a friendly and respectful manner.

The following behaviours will not be tolerated:

- Ignoring health or safety guidelines that place yourself or others at risk.
- Being disruptive, drinking excessively, stalking, following, or threatening anyone.
- Any form of violence; physical, verbal, threats, intimidation and harassment.
- Sexual harassment of any kind, including unwelcome sexual attention and inappropriate physical contact.
- Homophobia, racism, or behaviour that discriminates against a group or class of people.
- Invasion of privacy, including taking photos without permission

If you have been involved or have witnessed an incident that violates our Code of Conduct, please report the behaviour or incident to the Group Head of People & Culture at Count. We will investigate all incidents reported with discretion and confidentiality.

We reserve the right to refuse entry to any person who violates our Code of Conduct from attending the 2024 Count National Conference in its entirety or in part and/or ask them to leave a session and/or event immediately. No refunds will be issued in these circumstances.

FORCE MAJEURE

In the event of either cancellation or relocation or rescheduling the conference due to a Force Majeure event which is beyond the reasonable control of Count, Count shall not be liable for any failure to perform its obligations to any registrant or any other party for any loss, damage, claim, or liability suffered or allegedly suffered by any registrant or any other party. Force Majeure event includes any acts of nature, fire, flood, earthquake, storm, hurricane or other natural disaster, war, invasion, act of foreign enemies, hostilities whether war is declared or not, civil war, rebellion, revolution, military or usurped power or confiscation, terrorist activities, blockage, embargo, labour dispute, strike, lockout or interruption or failure of electricity or telephone service.
